

Trend Micro is Recognized as a 2018 Gartner Peer Insights Customers' Choice for Endpoint Protection Platforms

Latest distinction adds to rising list of merits

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Trend Micro Incorporated (TYO: 4704; TSE: 4704), a global leader in cybersecurity solutions, today announced its endpoint product has been named a 2018 Gartner Peer Insights Customers' Choice Endpoint Protection Platforms (EPP). This recognition from endpoint security customers follows multiple assessments from analysts and third-party testers.

"The mark of a strong vendor is consistency across multiple evaluation sources and we are happy to add a strong recognition from the constituency that matters the most — our customers," said Eric Skinner, vice president product marketing, Trend Micro. "Our position in endpoint security wouldn't be possible without customers' feedback."

Trend Micro thanks its customers for the invaluable feedback submitted for this evaluation. For a more comprehensive collection of customer feedback, visit here.

Gartner Peer Insights Customers' Choice for EPP focused specifically on Trend Micro's OfficeScan and Worry-Free Standard solutions. Earlier this month, the company launched an evolution of its OfficeScan endpoint solution, now named Trend Micro Apex One™. This offering is a simplified option that enhances automated detection and response and provides actionable insights that maximize security for customers.

As the company continues to redefine what's possible on the endpoint, it recently has been named a market leader in the The Forrester Wave™: Endpoint Security Suites, Q2 2018; and achieving NSS Labs' coveted "Recommended" status for Advanced Endpoint Protection. It has also been named a Leader by Gartner analysts in the January 2018 Magic Quadrant for Endpoint Protection Platforms.
